

MAY 25

“IN EVERY INTERACTION,
YOU CAN SHOW CHRIST
TO THOSE AROUND YOU.”

READ

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17

We were chosen from the beginning. He chose you for salvation. He says, “I chose you that I might show My glory through you.” The Bible teaches that no man may come to God unless the Spirit draws him. No human being is born with a desire for God, to be saved from sin, or to even recognize that he is a sinner. The Spirit has to draw you, and God is the initiator. God gave you the faith to believe in Him. Every good thing is from God, so no man can glory. God will direct you to people. You may never know what a kind word or deed may mean to that person’s eternity! In every interaction, you can show Christ to those around you, even in giving a cup of cold water. God had picked out and chosen Saul before he was even born, and after Saul became Paul, how many millions have followed Christ because of his ministry? Nothing is hidden from Christ, and He knows what He’s going to do with His chosen — YOU!

PRAY

Lord, that is really hard to grasp! You chose me, You wanted me. I am part of Your plan. You will use me for Your eternal purposes, and good works You prepared in advance for me to do. Show me where to go and what to do today. I’ll do it.

From May 25, 2008